To whom it may concern

Alfredo Polselli, was appointed in March as project manager to undertake and co-ordinate a refurbishment in the department of Radiation Oncology. During that time he proved himself to be a conscientious worker, who took pride in his work and listen to you needs and provided explanation as why it needed to be done in a certain way.

Alfredo was a diligent, honest and reliable person, who showed his professionalism with his commitment to Occupational, Health and Safety standards and guidelines. He adhered to the timeframe of the project and the quality of his work was of a high standard.

With Alfredo, I have no hesitation in recommending him for a position of trust and responsibility within his profession.
